

ALL DEAD IN THE LUTIN

Sunken Submarine Boat Located After Great Efforts By Divers But Not Raised.

NO ANSWER MADE BY CREW TO SIGNALS

Disaster Causing Much Criticism of French Ministry of Marine—Disasters Are Arguments Against Submarine

BISERTA, Oct. 18.—After the location this morning of the sunken submarine boat Lutin, which went down Tuesday with two officers and fourteen men on board, French and Danish divers worked all day to mark the position of the Lutin under the most difficult conditions. Many descents were necessary before the last diver, at 1:30 this afternoon, finally succeeded in fixing her location.

Admiral Bellin told the divers to tap on the steel shell of the submarine. No answer was given to these signals. Tomorrow morning an effort will be made to pass two heavy chains under the bow and stern respectively of the Lutin and by this means to raise her alongside the Abdallah dock.

A hawser which was attached to the sunken vessel parted during the night. The work of dragging for the submarine boat was resumed at dawn, but it was not until 9:30 o'clock a. m. that she was definitely located.

After much effort the divers succeeded in placing a hawser from the Cyclops under the bow of the Lutin and then tried to get a chain under her stern.

Vice Admiral Lord Charles Beveford, commander of the British fleet, telegraphed during the day, saying that in addition to the ships sent, all the resources of the British Mediterranean fleet would be placed at the disposition of the Lutin if necessary.

The British battleship Impregnable, the armored cruiser Cerberus and the torpedo boat destroyer Albion have arrived here from the island of Malta to assist in raising the Lutin.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—In spite of the fact that it was announced from Biserta this morning that the spot where the submarine boat Lutin sank on Tuesday had been definitely ascertained, hope of rescuing her crew has been practically abandoned at the ministry of marine. Indeed, the prevailing impression there is that all were immediately killed or rendered unconscious by the accident, the cause of which, however, is still a mystery, though theories on the subject are numerous.

The naval officers are generally of the opinion that when Lieutenant Fepoux ordered the boat to be submerged in the rough sea then running, the helmsman dressed the rudder too much and the Lutin pitched to the bottom, overturning her accumulators, suffocating the crew with the fumes from the acids before they had time to release the safety weights or the telephone buoy.

Water is as heavy as sixty pounds to the inch at a place where the submarine boat lies thirty-six meters, which, it is believed, would be enough to start her plates, especially if it is true, as announced in a special dispatch from Biserta, that the Lutin stranded a fortnight ago, that she will have been injured and that she was not docked after having been hauled out.

The ministry of marine is coming in for a lot of criticism, owing to its failure to properly equip the Biserta naval station with salvage apparatus, as it was asked to do after the disaster to the submarine boat Lutin, which sank last summer off Biserta. Some of the newspapers express the opinion that the repeated accidents to submarine boats should lead to an international agreement to prohibit their use, claiming that it is proved that they are more dangerous to their own crews than they are ever likely to be to an enemy.

CLEMENCEAU WILL SUCCEED SARRIEN

France's Minister of Interior Will Become Premier With Re-organized Cabinet.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—Premier Sarrien's retirement from the premiership has been decided upon and probably will be officially announced tomorrow. It is regarded as certain that President Fallieres will ask future Minister Clemenceau to assume the premiership.

Sarrien's resignation will be tendered purely on the ground of ill health, notwithstanding contrary reports of dissonance in the cabinet.

Late this evening it was semi-officially stated that the whole cabinet will resign and that Clemenceau, as premier, will retain the portfolio of the interior. Fallieres, minister of public instruction and worship, then, minister of agriculture, and Bourgeois, minister of commerce, it is said, are the only other members who are sure to enter the new cabinet.

Minister of Finance Poincaré and Minister of Finance Poincaré are doubtful. In addition to Poincaré, Clemenceau also contemplates inviting another old collaborator, Viviani, at present deputy for Paris, to enter the cabinet.

GERMAN SECRETARY DISLIKES PUBLICITY

Because It Makes His Visit to Rome Take On An Official Aspect.

ROME, Oct. 18.—The German secretary for foreign affairs, Von Tschirschky, who is visiting Rome, is said to be much annoyed at the publicity given to his visit to both the quai and the Vatican, while he wished to remain inconspicuous, as he had no political mission in coming to Rome.

The secretary said that the imperial chancellor, Prince Von Bethov, alone directs the policy of the German foreign office. The triple alliance, the secretary explained, expires some years from now, and naturally, in the view of the German government, the foreign policy of the countries interested will be referred to, but the exchange of views will not have the character of negotiations.

BIG BLAZE IN BAY CITY

Freight Sheds and Cars Were Consumed.

San Francisco's Fire Department Proved Equal to Demands Made Upon It.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Fire broke out tonight in the freight sheds of the Southern Pacific company on Berry street, between Fifth and Sixth, and made rapid progress, on account of the inflammable material in its path. Some alarm was felt throughout the city on account of the quickly spreading action of the flames, but the reorganized fire department proved itself equal to the emergency.

It was the first real test the firemen have since the configuration of April. Numerous cars and men had a dozen or more streams playing on the flames, with the result that surrounding property was protected. The water supply was ample and in good order. Alongside of the sheds were four tracks of freight cars and these were consumed.

It is impossible at this time to give an accurate estimate of the loss, as that fact hinges on whether or not the cars were loaded with freight and also upon the amount of goods stored in the sheds. An exact estimate placed the damage at $200,000 and that estimate may possibly cover the company's loss. The sheds were coast receiving sheds and contained much valuable merchandise. Shed "1," one block in length, was totally destroyed.

The fire started in the Sixth street end of this shed shortly before 9 o'clock and was discovered by Watchman James Mahoney, who immediately turned in an alarm. By the time the first engine arrived the shed was ablaze and the flames quickly spread to long lines of freight cars loaded with lumber, many of which were loaded, Chief Shinghous, upon his arrival, turned in four alarms in quick succession. For a time over 250 freight cars were threatened with destruction. Several cars loaded with paints and chemicals and two oil tanks caught on fire and exploded, throwing blazing oil in every direction and driving the firemen back.

Engines were rushed into the yard and began hauling the cars out of the fire zone. Two hundred were saved, but about fifty cars and their contents were burned.

For an hour the fire gave the fire department the hardest work since the disaster of last April, but the firemen succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames to the other sheds.

The cause of the fire is unknown, but the railroad officials are of the opinion that it started from spontaneous combustion or crossed electric wires. Will Ray, Harry, assistant local freight agent, estimated the loss at about $200,000.

CHICAGO & NORTHWESTERN DOUBLED ITS CAPITAL AT ANNUAL MEETING

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Stockholders and voting bondholders of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, at the annual meeting today, authorized the issuance of $100,000,000 of stock, doubling the present capital. At the same time the directors were given power to issue certificates at whatever time added funds might be necessary. Seven directors were re-elected.

TAFT TOLD OF CUBAN WORK

Secretary of War Made His Report to President and Discussed Plans With Him.

GENERAL FUNSTON NOT OUT OF FAVOR

No Time Can Yet Be Set For The Ending of American Occupation—Panama and Canal Zone Matters.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—President Roosevelt had a long conference today with Secretary Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon, who made a full report of all that had occurred in Cuba since the United States government intervened to restore order. Conditions in the island and the views of the officials as to the future, were discussed, the President desiring a thorough understanding of the situation. The financial future of the intervention also was taken up and the possible appointment of a fiscal agent for the United States was discussed.

None of the conferees was willing to make more than a general statement regarding the conversation.

On the isthmus. Panama matters were discussed. It has been decided to appoint a governor as well as an American minister for Panama, although the President is not yet ready to announce the names of the persons selected. When Governor Morgan was at the isthmus he held both positions.

Secretary Taft will not accompany the President to the isthmus. The present expectation is that the President will be accompanied by any member of his cabinet or other high official.

When Secretary Taft resumed his duties at the war department, after his conference with the President, he found a great accumulation of matters requiring his attention. The first business, however, was to give the necessary orders to carry into effect the plans he had formed relative to Cuba and which received the approval of the President.

Taft's Views of Mission. Speaking generally of the results of his mission to Cuba and the prospects for the political future of that island, the secretary said success had been attained in an important point at least, namely, the fighting had been stopped, and he did not believe it would be repeated, even after the withdrawal of the American forces.

It has been a difficult and dangerous situation for the time, as the commission had to deal with an undisciplined force of perhaps 20,000 men under arms and scattered about the island, making it difficult to reach them directly.

As to Funston. It was the real purpose of summoning General Funston to assist in this war, for which he is peculiarly qualified, owing to his acquaintance with many of the leading spirits on both sides, and in which he was entirely successful. There had never been any intention of placing him in command of the entire American forces, and when his work was done in connection with the cessation of active hostilities he returned to the United States, according to the original plan.

A mark of the error in which General Funston is held by the President, the secretary said, is to be found in the fact that he was to have been placed in command of a division of the army, although only a brigadier general, which is without precedent.

Belief Is So Valuable. Secretary Taft said he is anxious to have General Bell return to Washington as soon as possible, as he is peculiarly qualified in connection with business with the general staff. But that officer had worked so long and well in the Philippines, in precisely such conditions as he now confronts him in Cuba, and he speaks Spanish with fluency and understands the methods of doing business with such people as the Cubans so thoroughly, that the secretary feels he is the best representative he can have in Cuba. The secretary hoped, however, that it would be possible to recall General Bell to Washington in the course of a month or two.

The report that General Pershing will succeed in command of the American forces in Cuba is erroneous, according to Taft, as the command is too large for a junior among the brigadier generals.

Length of Our Occupation. The secretary preserved his usual attitude when the question of the length of time of the American stay in Cuba was brought up and said it was impossible to make any prediction. When the bad feelings stirred up by the revolution have subsided and there is no longer any danger, elections can be held without violence and with a disposition to abide loyally by the results on all sides, then only will the retirement of the American forces be in order. Secretary Taft said it will take three or four weeks to install the new government after the elections.

Relative to the disposition of the military and naval forces in Cuba, he said it has been decided to withdraw as soon as possible a number of marines. About 2400 marines are there and about 500 are to be withdrawn. The marines will be replaced by soldiers and the number of these, originally fixed at 5500 men, will probably be increased to about 7000.

Rough Weather on Trip. He remarked that he will make a written report to the President of the result of his work done in Cuba. He was prevented from preparing this on his northward trip by the bad weather. The Louisiana was tossed about like a cork in two violent storms, the worst she had experienced since her launching and even the plate glass front of the quartermaster's stern tower on the bridge was smashed in by the water which the ship took over her bow.

War Vessels Not Needed. There is no longer need for maintaining a naval force of any amount in Cuban waters, so Secretary Taft has recommended to the President, who approves the suggestion, that all warships now there be withdrawn, with the exception of two or three gunboats. The necessary orders to this effect will go at once. The army transport service, however, will be maintained.

Canal Zone Matters. Secretary Taft said he believed it will be impossible for him to make the projected trip to Panama with the President, as to the administration of the canal zone. Secretary Taft said it had been decided to divide the offices between two persons. The expediency of making Stevens governor, as well as chief engineer, had been canvassed. The maining purpose is to diminish the importance of the office of governor, while enlarging that of the American minister to Panama. The secretary stated that he expects to take up with the President very soon the question of appointing a Philippine commissioner and vice governor, which place was to have been filled by Governor Morgan before his assignment to Cuba.

SUDDEN DEATH UPSET PLANS FOR CHARITY

Kansas City Realty Agent Intended to Bequeath Property Away From Relatives.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 18.—All of the $500,000 estate of C. E. Schuchkopf, the wealthy real estate dealer of this city, who died suddenly on a train last week, will be inherited by a brother in Chicago and a sister in Warren, burg, Germany, in spite of the fact that the dead man had planned for more than ten years to leave his vast holdings to charity and religious organizations. An assigned will showing this intention was found but a thorough search has failed to discover a valid document disposing of the estate. The estate will be administered by the public administrator.

INSURANCE POLLING ON

N. Y. Life and Mutual Life Control Battle.

Ballotting for Directors Began Yesterday and Will Close December 18th.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Voting in the election which is to decide who shall control the Mutual and New York Life insurance companies and their $900,000,000 of assets began today and will continue until December 18th, when the polls close. It may take weeks to count the ballots, and in the event of a close election the count may be contested in the courts.

There are 650,000 policyholders in the Mutual and about $75,000,000 in the New York Life. What percentage will vote is merely guesswork. In the Mutual Life there are three tickets in the field—one nominated by the present management, is known as the "administration ticket." The second is the united committee's ticket, jointly nominated by the International Policyholders' Committee and the Mutual Life Policyholders' Association. The third, or fusion ticket, was nominated by the agents of the Mutual. In the New York Life, there are only two tickets, the administration nominees and those named by the International Policyholders' Committee.

Most of the voting will be by mail and the first lot of ballots was received in the offices of the two companies today. Each company is required by law to send by mail to every policyholder a ballot containing the full tickets regularly nominated.

Explicit directions as to how the voting ball to be done are not given, as it is the purpose of the state superintendent of insurance to accept a ballot so long as the intent of the policyholder is clearly shown.

The ballot must be signed by the policyholder and the signature must be witnessed. The number of the policy must also be written on the ballot.

The envelopes containing the ballots will not be opened and officially counted until December 18th. On that day the holders of proxies and the policyholders in person will vote. Most of the votes for the administration ticket will be in the form of proxies which will be for the two companies began today to collect. The policyholders' committee do not want proxies.

FIRE INSURANCE MEN DISCUSS THEIR WORK

Resolution Favoring Flat Rate of Commission Throughout the Country Was Favored.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 18.—The National Association of Local Fire Insurance Agents today discussed commission and the general relation of company to agent.

The general feature of this afternoon was the address of William Belmont on the San Francisco disaster and fire loss.

O. H. Woodworth, of St. Louis, introduced a resolution which favored a uniform commission of 15 per cent and 15 per cent contingent on all classes of business throughout the country. The resolution favored the elimination of the salaried agent and local manager. The resolution met with general approval and was sent to the resolutions committee.

TAMMANY MURPHY'S BOMB

Charges that Hearst Men Have Demanded Cash for Calling Candidates Off.

JEROME SUMMONED HIM BEFORE THE GRAND JURY

Murphy Says that It Was Only Because His Men Refused to Put Up that Independence League Men Were Named.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The most startling development in the present political campaign in this state came today, when Charles F. Murphy publicly announced that numerous had been demanded by representatives of the Independence league in consideration of the withdrawal of their candidates in certain districts. This was followed by the serving on Murphy of a subpoena to appear before the grand jury in John Doe proceedings and testify to his charges.

Judge Gave Up Money. The subpoena was issued by District Attorney Jerome, after a conference with Judge Otto A. Rosabsky of the court of general sessions, who, Murphy intimated, had given up money for the endorsement of the league. Murphy charged that certain Independence league managers had demanded money for the withdrawal of their candidates in congressional, senatorial and assembly districts where a third ticket had been put in the field. He added, however, that William H. Hearst, the Independence league and Democratic candidate for governor, knew nothing of this.

What Murphy Says. "It is a fact," said Murphy, "that many of our candidates for congress and the legislature have been approached by representatives of the Independence league and money has been demanded of them. Our men refused to give up and it was only then that the league put up opposition candidates. The men who demanded money were not ordinary individuals belonging to the league, but representatives of that organization. If we had paid what they asked there would be no league ticket in the field against us."

Hearst's Manager Talks. Max F. Hensen, who has charge of the Independence league headquarters, gave out a formal statement denying Murphy's charges. The statement says: "The managers of the Independence league, so-called, are not 'holding up' candidates for cash. If anyone ever remotely connected with the league has attempted such a thing we shall be glad to know the facts."

"I don't if any candidate of the league has as yet contributed one cent to the league's campaign fund," Hensen said. "The statement denying Murphy's charges, the statement says: 'The managers of the Independence league, so-called, are not 'holding up' candidates for cash. If anyone ever remotely connected with the league has attempted such a thing we shall be glad to know the facts.'

The twelve men, locked in a small room furnished with chairs and ventilated by single windows, have wrestled with the problem before them since 8:20 o'clock Wednesday night. Throughout the night they argued. Throughout the day they argued. At 2 o'clock this morning they asked for a written charge of the court. At 2 o'clock this afternoon they asked an audience with the court. It was granted. It was brief.

"Have you agreed upon a verdict?" "Your honor, we have not."

"Have you any requests to make?" "None."

"I do not feel that you have given the case the length of time necessary, and will, therefore, ask you to retire to the jury room."

This was the public record of the jury today. The men went back with halting feet.

After they had returned from a near-by restaurant for their evening meal, they were for a few minutes allowed the freedom of the courtroom, which was cleared to allow them to exercise. It was during this exercise that the tension of severe deliberation was broken. Some one laughed. Then all laughed. They walked and ran around the room and for a few moments forgot their troubles. They back to the jury room, they were ordered and the key turned from the outside. Once was heard the voice of persuasion.

There are indications that Judge Barker will consider individual hours, not so long a time for deliberation, after which, if an agreement is reached, the jury will likely be discharged. If this plan is followed, the discharge will come at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow night.

Attorney General EHS and his assistant, Harrison, have returned to Columbia. Attorney Kline and Tolles, have gone to Cleveland and M. F. Elliott to New York.

At midnight no indication of a change in the situation had come from the jury room. The jurors broke into song several times during the evening, but for an hour before partaking of their midnight luncheon seemed to be engaged in an earnest discussion of the legal phases of the case.

At 10 o'clock this morning everything was quiet in the jury room, indicating that undoubtedly a majority of the twelve men were asleep. No request had come from the jury room during the night and there was no indication of a conclusion.

JAPAN OBJECTS TO SEPARATE SCHOOLS

San Francisco's Plan of Keeping Oriental Apart Will Lead to Official Protest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Japanese Consul Uyeno intimates the possibility of international complications between the United States and Japan unless Japanese children are allowed to attend all the public schools instead of being segregated to the Oriental schools with Chinese, Indians and negroes.

The consul is to appear before the board of education and make formal protest on this matter on behalf of the Japanese school children of this city. He claims that the section of the school law in accordance with which the Oriental schools were established by the board of education is unconstitutional and that before it is enforced it should be tested by the highest courts of the state.

If, in this eventuality, the law is upheld, it is said that Uyeno will appeal from its decision to the Japanese representative at Washington.

The board of education recently determined that all Japanese children must attend Oriental schools, and the first of these was opened last Monday at Clay and Powell streets.

GEORGE SUTTON IS BILLIARD CHAMPION

At 18.2 Balk Line He Defeated Sloan on at Madison Square By Brilliant Play.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—George Sutton of Chicago is now the acknowledged world's champion at 18.2 balk line billiards. In a match game with Sloan, he defeated George Sloan of this city at Madison Square garden hall tonight by the score of 300 to 275.

In the tournament held here last April, Sutton made the world's record run of 234 and an average of 163. Sutton tonight showed some of the most brilliant billiards ever seen in this city. His best run was 202 in the tenth inning.

STANDARD OIL JURY HANGING

No Agreement After Long Deliberation.

Locked Up Wednesday Evening They Will Remain So Until Tonight.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 18.—The jury charged with deciding the Standard Oil company of Ohio is guilty or not guilty of conspiracy against trade, entered upon its second night's vigil with no indication of a verdict. Should the jury disagree, it is said by the prosecution, either another trial of the same suit or proceedings against one of the alleged subsidiary companies, will be begun without delay and probably be brought to a trial in November.

The twelve men, locked in a small room furnished with chairs and ventilated by single windows, have wrestled with the problem before them since 8:20 o'clock Wednesday night. NEBRASKA LANDOWNER WAS AN ENGLISH PEER William Scully Was Descended from Irish Family But Renounced His Title.

LONDON, Ill., Oct. 18.—William Scully, formerly Lord Scully of London, England, died in London yesterday afternoon. He was the peer until 1900, when he became a citizen of the United States and resided in Washington, D. C. His fortune is estimated at about $500,000,000, including 200,000 acres of land in Illinois, Kansas and Nebraska. His first land was bought in Logan, Livingston and Gangananga counties, this state, and the remainder in Kansas and Nebraska.

William Scully was the son of Don Scully, scullery boy in the Irish ambassador's house and the first Irish student in 240 years to be admitted to Trinity college, Cambridge. He studied law in a Dublin office. Later, upon the passage of the corn law, in 1846, he was confined to a lunatic asylum and by urging progressive farming, continued to acquire property up to the time of his death.

He leaves surviving two sons residing at Washington, D. C.

HURRICANE CUT OFF CUBA

Serious Damage Is Feared as a Result of Big Storm Which Has Swept the Island.

COAST OF FLORIDA IS ALSO VISITED

Meagre News Received Indicates That Wind and Rain or Tidal Wave Destroyed Many Coast Towns.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—At 2 o'clock this morning, cable communications with Havana had not been restored and the Western Union was unable to get in communication with Miami or Key West, the land lines throughout Southern Florida having been prostrated. It is impossible to get information that will give any basis for an estimate of the damage.

The lines on the Western Cuban end are connected with Havana by land wires and the presumption is that these wires have been put out of commission, a single dispatch received by the Associated Press from Santiago de Cuba stating that the weather there is clear. This dispatch came to the Associated Press by way of Bermuda, but Santiago de Cuba, which is nearly 500 miles from Havana, reports that all wires to the capital are down.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—The tropical hurricane which swept over Cuba, breaking cable communication and passing on the southern and eastern coasts of Florida early today, cut off communication south of Jacksonville and flooded various places in its course. Tonight it is apparently safe away from land and heading toward the Bermuda Islands and the ocean beyond. The storm swept with terrific force, but its path was hardly more than seventy miles in width.

It raged last night in Havana, leveling the island wires in the neighborhood, and passed over the west end of Cuba, its vortex crossing Sand Key and Key West with winds blowing at least seventy-two miles an hour, and swept on to the ocean.

The weather bureau announced that the storm has evidently passed eastward through the Florida straits and is now over the Atlantic some distance east of the Georgia coast. So far as reports from the land weather stations show, there are no dangerous winds tonight. Storm warnings, however, are displayed all along the Atlantic coast from Florida to Cape Cod.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Oct. 18.—Frequent messages have been received at the wireless telegraph station here today, giving the progress of a severe hurricane which swept from Cuba to Florida.

Early this morning the storm was reported in the vicinity of Havana, doing great damage there, but details are lacking. Later, the storm reached Key West, blowing down small houses and trees. As the day wore on, it reached Jupiter, where, it is said, the wind blew seventy miles an hour. Wires are down south of Jupiter and no wireless reports have been received from the Miami district.

The storm is moving in this direction. Residents on Anastasia Island have been warned, and some of them have moved to this city.

PORT PIERCE, Fla., Oct. 18.—The conductor on a train just in from Miami, reports terrible destruction there by the hurricane today. Fully 100 houses were blown down and the city is in a demoralized condition. The handsome churches of the Episcopal and Methodist denominations were both blown down. The concrete jail was leaning, with danger of turning over and the prisoners had to be removed. The car sheds are down and the top was blown off the Peninsula and Occidental Steamship shed. One or two brick buildings collapsed.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 18.—A severe storm has been blowing today on the east coast of Florida but the wires went down early in the day and it has been impossible to obtain details. Just before the wires failed, the operator at Miami reported an unusual high tide, with water two feet deep in the telegraph office and the street flooded.

At St. Augustine the tide was the highest in ten years and streets along the bay front were inundated.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 18.—Efforts tonight to reach Key West, Fla., by wireless from here, brought no result. Key West replied to wireless calls last night.

MRS. AGGIE MYERS GAINS A RESPIRE OF SEVERAL MONTHS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Justice Brewer of the Supreme court of the United States declined either to grant or deny the petition for a writ of error in the case of Mrs. Aggie Myers, under sentence of death on the charge of murdering her husband in Kansas City in 1901. The justice said it would be necessary to have a complete record of the case before passing upon it. This action will have the effect of giving the woman a respite of at least two or three months. She was to have been hanged on the 26th inst.

SEALS LOST THEIR HEADS

Also the Ball and Yesterday's Baseball Game.

When Exhibition Was Over
Fresno Was At Long End of 14 to 7 Score.

Yesterday's game was an exhibition of how baseball should be played given in the inimitable style that only the Reds can produce. Wheeler, who was in the box, was hit twice, and which, together with listless support, cost the San Francisco team the game of the time of 11 to 7.

Harry Walters, who has been on the shag line for some time, was on the shag yesterday and was a little wild, but he held down the bat to nine hits and was given good support.

The scoring started in the very first inning. With one man out, Wheeler worked Mohler and Mohler was hit by the ball. Hildebrand got a Texas leaguer back of second and Wheeler crossed the platter. Irwin knocked the ball down to third and Truck threw out Mohler at the plate. McClelland got a safe hit to the right garden and both Hildebrand and Irwin scored. He tried to make second and was thrown out by Hildebrand, who had got Hoag's long peg from right three runs in the first inning. Casey walked and Doyle hit safe back of second. Walters crossed the platter, advancing both men and McClelland hit to short. McClelland tried to get Casey at the plate, but he was too slow and Casey scored with McClelland safe at first. Eagan hit safe to center and McClelland scored. Dashiwood hit to Mohler and Delmas was scored at second. Then Dashiwood and Truck tried to work the double steal and Truck was caught out the plate.

Fresno scored another run in the second inning. Cartwright got a hit to center, but was out on Hoag's ball to center, which allowed Babe to land safe at first. Casey scored Hoag with a two-bagger to center.

The Seals forged ahead for a short time by getting two runs in the fourth. Irwin limited safe on a bad peg by Truck to the first sack and scored on Constantine's two-bagger to right. Constantine crossed the rubber on Brown's two-bagger to left.

Fresno tied the score again in the fifth inning. With one man out, Doyle was issued a free pass to the initial sack. Walters knocked a slow grounder to McClelland and he fumbled the ball. Doyle scored on McClelland's single to right field. Eagan attempted to pull off the squeeze play but the ball bounded high from the bat and Wheeler caught it and returned Walters at third on a double.

The sixth inning was the most awful spam ever seen on a ball field. All the Seals vied with each other in making errors, and Fresno did some heavy stickwork. Delmas, the first man up, got a safe hit back of short and Dashiwood sacrificed him to second. Cartwright went out on a high foul in the eighth. Then the exhibition commenced. Doyle singled to center and Delmas scored. Casey hit to right and Hoag landed on third. Then Casey and Hoag started to work the double steal and the Seals got all mixed up. Constantine got the ball and threw it to the plate, but he made a bad peg and Babe crossed the rubber. The ball hit the grandstand and before Spies could recover it Casey had scored also. Doyle got a three-bagger to left and Wheeler walked. Walters and McClelland, filling the bags. Eagan got a long hit to the right garden and both Doyle and Walters crossed the dish. Delmas ended the merry-go-round by flying high to right.

The Seals scored one in the seventh and another in the eighth, but Fresno scored two in each of these innings. Wheeler landed safe on a high throw to the first sack by Eagan and went to second before Cartwright could get to the ball. He scored on Mohler's at to center. Irwin walked in the eighth and went to third on Spies' hit to left. Spencer hit safe to center and Irwin scored. Spies attempted to come in on this play but Doyle's accurate throw to the plate cut him out.

The seventh inning was a repetition of the sixth for Fresno. With one man out, Cartwright singled to center and scored on Hoag's long hit to right. Casey walked and Doyle hit to McClelland. The new Seal tried to shut off Casey on a toss to Mohler, but was too strong and threw the ball away and Hoag gulped home.

In the eighth Dashiwood got a safe one to center and Cartwright followed with another to the same garden. Hoag put a hot one to Irwin and beat it to the first sack. Irwin threw wild in his attempt to get out Babe and both Dashiwood and Cartwright crossed the rubber.

Diamond Flashes.

McClelland was more than rattled yesterday. He didn't know where to put the ball in a single instance when he was up to him, and when a Fresno player wanted to land safe he just hit to short. McClelland only got better, but his first appearance in the uniform of the Seals was not a howling success—at least, from the standpoint of a Seal.

Dave Walthour, San Francisco's right fielder, is ill in bed. He has been sick for some time, and Wednesday night was attacked with chills and fever. It is possible that he will not be able to finish the season with the Seals.

Orval Overall who has been pitching for the Chicago Nationals, which team won the championship of the National league this year, will be at his home in Visalia next Sunday and Mike Fisher says that he will have the big fellow to pitch a game before the season is finished here.

The directors are considering the benefit game for the benefit of the baseball club which has been a heavy loser this season. The team played a benefit game for the benefit of the San Francisco relief fund and will play a game Saturday for the benefit of the fund that is to be used to entertain the coming convention of the state teachers' convention, and it is the consensus of opinion that a benefit game for the sake of baseball itself will not be out of order. When the game is pulled off, it is likely that overall will be on the firing line and Frank Chance will hold down the first sack.

AT LOS ANGELES—Los Angeles won today's game from Portland, 5 to 3, by timely hits. The Seals tallied one in the first inning by a double and a single, added another in the fifth by a single, a high throw to first and a double, and brought their winning total to five in the eighth, with three singles and an infield hit. The visitors made their three runs in the eighth, also, on a single passing second, a hit to center, a dropped fly and a punt. The Angels made seven hits off Henderson, while the Portland hit boys for five. Score:

Birth of Baby Hausch Completes Two Generations—Saw His Trial Completed

VISALIA, Oct. 18.—Wilbur Fulton, an employee of a local plumbing establishment, was almost asphyxiated this afternoon while engaged in soldering a large tank at the Pioneer Brick yards. He was overcome by fumes of acid from a blow pot with which he was working and fell to the bottom of the tank. He was rescued by fellow workmen, taken to a physician and resuscitated. Fulton suffered intensely for some hours but was pronounced out of danger late this afternoon.

By the birth of a son to Charles Hausch of near Golden on Saturday last, the somewhat remarkable circumstance of three living generations was brought about. Today Mrs. Mary Ferguson of Headburg, Sonoma county, celebrated her 93d birthday. Mrs. Ferguson is the great, great grandmother of Master Douglas C. Hausch first mentioned. The wife of Charles Hausch, mother of the child, is Mrs. Hannah Hausch, aged about 24 years; her mother is Mrs. Alice Combs, residing between Visalia and Tulare, aged about 42. The mother of the latter is Mrs. Elizabeth Hagler, age 64, residing just southeast of this city and the mother of the last named is Mrs. Ferguson.

The taking of testimony in the trial of Sam Lee, the Chinaman, for murder, was completed this afternoon at 2:30, when Attorney M. E. Power began the opening address for the prosecution. He was followed by Leroy G. Smith and D. M. Edwards, who defended the case for the people. Only two witnesses were placed on the stand for the defense, one of these, a drunken testifier, stating that he did not believe the knife found on the dead man's body was the property of Lee, as he thought the one owned by the latter was shorter.

REPUBLICANS AT SELMA TONIGHT

Needham, Chandler and Rowell Will Speak.

"Grandma" Rose, Aged 90 Years, Reads Fine Print at Birthday Party

SELMA, Oct. 18.—The Republicans of Selma are preparing for a big rally tomorrow (Friday) evening in honor of Congressman J. C. Needham, whose popularity in this community increases as his good work in congress each session adds to his worth to the people of the district. Congressman Needham is a drawing card in this community and a large audience of enthusiastic constituents will be present at the Unger to show their appreciation of his efforts in the past. Hon. W. F. Chandler, an candidate for the legislature under the republican ticket, will also address the voters, and a popular speaker with Selma audiences will be Chester H. Rowell. The Selma concert band has been engaged for the occasion and there will perhaps be other music. The Republican committee have issued a general invitation for everybody to attend the meeting tomorrow evening, and hear the principles of Republicanism ably expounded.

"Grandma" Rose, aged 90 years, wife of C. J. Rose, was given a happy surprise on Tuesday in honor of her birthday anniversary. The affair was arranged by Mrs. N. O. Alberts, a daughter, who lately came here from Sacramento, Clay county, Nebraska. A number of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Rose were invited to spend the day and a splendid dinner was one of the delightful features of the occasion. "Grandma" Rose read a number of passages from a small print book to show the acuteness of her eyesight without the use of spectacles. These present were Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Rose and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. J. D. Anderson, Mrs. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Morino, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Johnson, Mrs. Forsblad, Mrs. C. Peterson, Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Poulson, Mrs. H. A. Hansen and Mrs. Forsberg.

The Democrats held their first meeting in Selma on Tuesday evening and about 150 of the faithful were in attendance to hear George W. Cartwright, Thomas A. O'Donnell and W. D. Foote, who were the speakers of the occasion. Justice Tucker presided at the meeting. G. P. Wells and wife went to Selma this week for a visit with relatives and to attend the annual conference of the M. E. Church, South. Mr. Wells may close up a deal for twenty-three acres near San Jose. He says that for the present he has no intention of leaving Selma, even should he secure the land, which is an unimproved tract. Mrs. Mahel Pelton Cameron, accompanied by her two sons, is here from Redlands on a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Pelton.

Mrs. W. B. Drew and son of Alameda have returned to Selma. After a pleasant visit in Selma, Carl Drew accompanied them home to remain for a short time, in the hope that the lay climate may prove beneficial to his health.

S. A. Yost and family have returned from Deer Creek Hot Springs. Mrs. H. M. Black and little daughter are guests at the home of Rev. and Mrs. McConnell.

Clarence W. Collier has returned from the East, where he was attending school with the intention of becoming a minister. He was compelled to give up his studies on account of poor health.

Harvey Bender and family left this week for their home near Des Moines, Ia. They remained in this city for nearly a year, and Mr. Bender has a vineyard rented this season.

Dr. O. W. Steinwald and family have gone to Headburg to remain for a month. The doctor's health is not good.

A large crowd attended the polo contest between Fresno and Madera teams at the skating rink last night. The Madera team was victorious, score 1 to 0.

HARRY GREENE, SPHINX CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

As Silent In San Joaquin County As In Fresno County.

Harry Greene, Democratic nominee for congress, is as quiet as a sphinx to the Democratic county central committee of San Joaquin county as he is to the Fresno county committee. After republishing the recent article in the Republican of Greene's failure to fill any of the speaking dates for him in this county, the Stockton Independent had the following to say of his campaign in San Joaquin county: "Mr. Greene was also supposed to speak in San Joaquin county, but the members of the local Democratic county central committee are as much at sea as their brethren of Fresno county about the location of Mr. Greene. When he was nominated at the Democratic papers heralded the fact that he owned a big hotel at Monterey and he was worth $100,000, but it seems that Mr. Greene is not distributing the coin as fast as the faithful would be pleased to see him.

"The undoubtedly realizes that he has no chance of defeating Congressman Needham and proposes saving his campaign expenses by not holding meetings. Mr. Greene enjoys riding around in an automobile and has been in Stockton two or three times since he was passed the gold brick at Sacramento, but usually he stops at the roseville and elms with two or three Democrats for a short time or three. Then he jumps into his machine and disappears. Nothing more is heard of him until he drops into the city again as usual, punctuated by his departure. He is surely making a new-fangled canvass, if such a word can be used in connection with this auto tour. In the meantime Congressman Needham is making a complete canvass of the Sixth congressional district and speaking at all of the principal places.

WEBBER COMPANY GROWS IN FAVOR AT NOVELTY

This week the Webber company is presenting one of the best shows ever seen at the Novelty theater. The opening first part is beautiful beyond a doubt and must be seen to be appreciated. John Rapier and Billy Mack are seen to great advantage and keep the audience in an uproar from the time they appear on the stage until they finish. Frank Willard is singing sweetly this week, and the motion pictures are above the usual grade. The closing act, "Ship Ahoy," is one of the best motion pictures of the day. Special scenery and electrical effects add to its beauty and success. The chorus is pretty and shapely and the whole show is most interesting from beginning to end.

Through a misunderstanding on the part of the public, the impression has gotten out that the firm of Knight & Ewing Company, Incorporated, has been absorbed by our competitors. This report arose through a former member of the firm severing his connections and going to work for one of our competitors. We will advise that we are still representing the same insurance companies that we have represented in the past, and it is not our intention to sell out, but to continue to write business as of old.

It may be of interest to the public to know that the firm is principally owned and controlled by J. Fred Ewing, Jr., A. McCullough, Jr. and W. M. BANKERS IN CONVENTION

Little Business Disposed of in Brief Session

Express Companies Who Do a Banking Business Are Breaking Laws.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—Elastic currency and currency reform constituted the paramount topic of today's session of the convention of the American Bankers' association. Several efforts were made yesterday by different delegates to bring the subject before the convention for discussion and action, but counter efforts were successful in thwarting this purpose for the day in order that routine reports might be presented. There was not sufficient time for the submission of all the reports and a number went over until today.

The session was opened with prayer, offered by Rev. H. S. Bradley, pastor of St. John's M. E. Church South, of St. Louis. Immediately the hearing of reports was resumed, the first being the report of the clearing house conference committee by Secretary Frederick E. Farnsworth of the Michigan Bankers' association, Detroit.

The report set forth that unquestionable the evil of country checks is and has been for some years one of the most important subjects which the banks have had to consider. The report stated that efforts are being made by the clearing houses of the country to eradicate the evil, but that many of the clearing houses have poor systems of rules looking toward the achievement of this result, some of them being without even an effective organization, and the committee believes that the work should be carried out on broader lines and more scope.

Bill of Lading.
The report of the bill of lading committee was presented by Chairman Lewis E. Pierson, president of the New York National Exchange bank, New York city. The report dealt with the methods of handling bills of lading by banks and recommended that there be presented to congress in December amendments to the rate bill, to follow the existing bill of lading when issued in negotiable form, and also define the rights and liabilities of the parties thereto in the event necessary to safeguard the reasonable rights of those advancing value upon such documents, with due regard to the nature of business and relation, rights and duties of the carrier.

A resolution was adopted that the secretary of the association be directed to mail within thirty days to all bankers members of congress, and clearing house association, chamber of commerce, board of trade and shipping association in the United States, copies of the report of the bill of lading committee and that every banker be urged to use his best efforts to secure the adoption by congress of the committee's recommendation.

Yojiro Ono, superintendent of agencies, Bank of Japan, was introduced and addressed the convention on the topic "Some Financial Aspects of the Late War."

Had to Vacate Theater.
The delegates who had been patiently waiting for the currency reform question to be brought up were brought to their feet, protesting at 11:30 o'clock when President Hamilton announced that the theater would have to be vacated in twenty minutes, owing to the management desiring to prepare for the afternoon matinee performance postponed from yesterday. After some discussion, the whole subject of currency was made an order of business at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The amendment to the constitution of the Second National Bank of Aurora (Ill.), which threatened to become a bone of contention yesterday, was by unanimous vote laid over for another year.

After Express Companies.
F. D. Durham of Omaha, Ill., introduced the following resolution, which was adopted:
"That the executive council of the American Bankers' association appoint a committee with power to act, whose duty it shall be to gather evidence of the breaking of the interstate commerce law by the express companies in doing banking business, and place same before the interstate commerce commission with the avowed intention of compelling said express companies to discontinue the banking business; furthermore, that the executive council of the American Bankers' association be authorized to place such funds as they may deem advisable in the hands of the attorneys and accountants for the purpose of collecting and presenting such evidence."
Adjourned until tomorrow.

The petition asks for an accounting and for the distribution among the contributors of $140,000 believed to have been on hand after the campaign expenses were paid.

CABINET CHANGES ARE IMMINENT IN FRANCE

Premier Sarrien's Health Forbids His Continuance in Office and Clemenceau May Succeed.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—The recent fears that a ministerial crisis might occur before the next session of the chamber of deputies developed this evening to almost a certainty.
According to information received from a trustworthy source Premier Sarrien has informed President Fallieres that he does not possess sufficient physical strength to retain the premiership, his physician having declared that a further continuance in office would endanger his health. The president, however, insisted that the premier reconsider his resolve and endeavor to remain in office.
Sarrien finally decided not to announce his resignation yet, but it is the firm conviction in well informed circles that he will give up his portfolio at the cabinet meeting to be held next Friday.

Politicians are now forecasting the probable composition of a new ministry. It is considered practically certain that President Fallieres will request that Clemenceau, the minister of the interior, take the premiership. This move probably would lead to a redistribution of the other portfolios.

YALE GOLF PLAYERS HAVE SPLENDID CHANCE OF A DOUBLE VICTORY.

GARDEN CITY, L. I., Oct. 18.—At the close of today's play in the intercollegiate golf tournament, Yale seemed to have a royal chance of duplicating her double victory of last year on the links of the Garden City club. Yale won the team championship yesterday. When the first round of eighteen holes match play, individual championship, was concluded today, five of the eight survivors were Yale men, two from Princeton and the other from Harvard.

General Guellin, an insurgent, at the head of a small body of men, is still holding out, but he has lost much of his popularity. Several bands of insurgents have surrendered to the government.

His exact ailment has not been made generally known.

PRICES CURRENT

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Trading in the wheat pit was active during the first hour and the market had a strong undertone. Shorts and commission houses were active bidders but offerings were light. The demand was based on the strength of wheat at Liverpool, which was due, it is said, to continued light receipts at Winnipeg. The market was also buoyantly affected by a dispatch from Duluth which claimed an active demand there for export. During the last hour a number of large sold moderately and prices declined somewhat. The close was steady. December opened 1/2 and 3/8 to 3/8 and 1/2 higher at 74 1/2 and 1/2, sold up to 74 5/8 and then declined to 74 1/2, closing 1/2 higher at 74 1/2 and 3/8.

Trade in oats was fairly active and the market was firm. December closed 1/8 up at 33 5/8 and 33 3/4.

Provisions were quiet and steady. At the close January pork was up 2 1/2, lard was 2 1/2 higher and ribs gained 2 1/2 and 5c.

SAN FRANCISCO, Wheat steady: December $1.20 1/2; cash $1.23. Barley strong: December $1.03 3/8; cash $1.07 1/2. Corn weak: large yellow $1.35 and 1/2; 40.

MANUEL SILVEIRA REACHED VENEZUELA

Definite Assurances from Island of Curacao Regarding the L. C. vaning Cuban.

WILLEMSTAD, Island of Curacao, Oct. 18.—The Cuban steamer Carmelina, which left Havana October 2nd, ostensibly for New York having on board Manuel Silveira, of Silveira & Co., bankers of Havana and the representatives in Cuba of J. M. Caballero & Co. of New York, who recently assigned with large liabilities, touched at this port October 18th and subsequently left here for Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, whence it is reported the party proceeded to Caracas. The Carmelina called here again October 18th and remained outside the harbor. Her captain communicated with the shore and the steamer afterward proceeded, supposedly for Havana.

A man named Pino, whose identity was not established, formed one of Silveira's party.

Russian Admiral Nebogatoff Will So Aver.

Officers Condemned to Death for Surrendering Bedovi Are Pardoned.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18.—The preliminary investigation into the surrender of Rear Admiral Nebogatoff of his squadron at the battle of the Sea of Japan is said to be decidedly favorable to the admiral. The latter, in the official protocol prepared for his approaching trial by court martial, emphasizes the hopelessly disabled condition of two of his principal ships, the lack of ammunition and the exhaustion of the crews at the time of the surrender.

The battle-ship Orel, instead of being almost unscathed, as stated, shortly after the battle, was so damaged May 27, 1905, that her commander asked Admiral Rojestvensky for permission to destroy her, he was on the point of sinking the next morning and only had two heavy guns in action. The battle-ship Nicholas of the same squadron also was disabled and her bows were shot away.

An imperial order was published today commencing the sentences of the four officers of the torpedo boat destroyer Bedovi who, with Admiral Rojestvensky, were tried at Cronstadt July 4th on the charge of surrendering to the enemy and were found guilty and condemned to death by shooting. On account of extenuating circumstances, Emperor Nicholas was requested to commute the sentence to dismissal from the service and deprivation of certain rights which he has now done. Rojestvensky was acquitted July 4th.

The final step in the demobilization of Russia's great Manchurian army was taken today when an order was published disbanding the staff of the army of the Far East, as it is officially designated, whose commander, General Grodekoff, was lately relieved. Only a corps commander will remain in Manchuria until the completion of the evacuation of that territory. The Russian troops in Siberia are already on a peace footing.

Premier Stolypin has sent a circular to the provincial governors asking them to announce to the inhabitants of their districts that all conscripts refusing to serve with the colors will be tried by drumhead court martial.

DANGEROUS MANIAC ESCAPED FROM ASYLUM

He Gained Notoriety Two Years Ago By His Persecution of Wealthy Chicago Girl.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—Lucien W. Perkins, who acquired notoriety in this vicinity two years ago on account of his sensational persecution of Miss Cora Otten, of Pasadena, daughter of a wealthy Chicago manufacturer, and who was finally adjudged insane and sent to the asylum at Highlands, escaped from that institution today and is at large, according to information received by the local police. He is considered dangerous.

Perkins formerly lived in Chicago and owned a bicycle shop there. He annoyed Miss Otten with persistent attention on all occasions, haunting her home, and on one occasion, being found concealed in her room. He also wrote her obscene letters, was prosecuted for it, but escaped punishment by being sent to the asylum.

The district attorney today decided to place her on trial for this offense October 24th. She has been in jail four months. Her defense will be a promise of immunity from the prosecution for turning state's evidence.

The princes are traveling in company with a group of leading Danish financiers interested in the East Asiatic company, the object of their trip being to further Danish commercial interests in China and Japan. The party will be absent five months.

Burglary at Tehachapi.
BAKERSFIELD, Oct. 18.—Burglars used dynamite on the safe of Winterman & company at Tehachapi last night, blowing the door off the hinges. There is no clew to the perpetrators.

Killed Son and Himself.
CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Bernard Chohr, a Russian laborer, today shot and fatally wounded his son, 21 years old, and then committed suicide by swallowing carbolic acid. The son had prevented Chohr from killing his mother, and the father, enraged at this, entered his son's room while the latter lay asleep and shot him twice in the back.

Unknown Suicide in Los Angeles.
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—The body of an unidentified young Russian was found today in an alley in the rear of 1006 Alvarado street with a bullet hole through the forehead. A revolver was found beside the remains. It is believed to be a case of suicide, although no reason is known for the act.

HARRAHAN DENIES HE IS FOR HARRIMAN

But He Voted for Harriman's Man for Director of the Illinois Central Railroad.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—J. T. Harahan, second vice president of the Illinois Central railroad and one of the directors who yesterday signed a document in the annual meeting of the road favoring H. W. DeForest who was decried by E. H. Harriman as director of the road today denied that he is a Harriman man. The declaration was drawn from Harahan by a query as to whether or not it was true that he had been promised the presidency of the road if Fish is not re-elected. "I deny the imputation emphatically," said Harahan. "I am not a Harriman man and that I voted for Mr. DeForest does not make me one."

WINTER SOLUTION COMPANY

Get Well Acquainted With The Mutual Life

It has been in existence sixty-three years. Public confidence and patronage have made it and kept it the largest and staunchest Life Insurance company in the world. It is owned by its policyholders. It protects thousands, but there are many others who should have the same protection. How about you? People who are so thoughtful and kind as to wish to provide as they can to-day for what will happen some other day, when they are taken from those they love and support, should get acquainted with

The Mutual Life Insurance Company

Let them read its history; analyze its statements; examine its investments; consult its agents. They will find a reason for its strength and stability and a reason for their confidence and patronage. The new management of the Mutual Life has been in control for nine months. Its report for the first six months will be mailed to anyone on request, or may be had of its agents. It tells what has been accomplished in conformity with the new Insurance Laws; shows the vast reductions, and indicates the unusual advantages yet to reach its policyholders. Its plain figures, given in a plain way, will convince any fair-minded person that The Mutual Life to-day justifies the good opinion of Bishop Chas. C. McCabe, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, who recently said: "After long and careful consideration, I am thoroughly satisfied that the present administrations of both companies (the New York Life and the Mutual Life) are now effecting great economies and reforms, and that these institutions, purged as by fire, are now in a position to afford the protection of life insurance in better form, and on better terms, than any known in the past." It justifies also the good opinion of Mr. James C. Colgate and his associates, who, having policies to the amount of $5,000,000 in the Mutual Life, recently "resolved that the present executive officers and trustees are, in the opinion of the Policyholders' Protective Association of the Mutual Life, faithful to its interests, and that their administration of its affairs has been and is efficient, economical and beneficial to the policyholders."

If you would like to know for yourself the latest phases of Life Insurance, or wish information concerning any form of policy, consult our nearest agent or write direct to The Mutual Life Insurance Company, New York, N. Y.

Do you know what a "lard stomach" is?

Indigestion promptly follows the use of lard as lard is made from hog-fat, and is greasy and indigestible. Some future day, when people are wiser and healthier, lard, for edible purposes, will be scarcely used; but, until then, we suppose people will continue to suffer from "lard stomachs."

The most perfect shortening in the world is Cottolene. It is a pure vegetable product, containing only pure, refined cotton seed oil and choice selected beef suet. It will make your food palatable, digestible, nourishing and healthful, which is more than any one can truthfully say of lard.

Cottolene is a clean product. Only the most modern and hygienic methods are employed in its manufacture. Its purity is your surety. The quality of Cottolene is always uniform and dependable.

Every good grocer sells Cottolene; and those who use it themselves, recommend it. It comes only in sealed, white pails, with a red label and band. In the center of the label is our trade mark—a steer's head in a cotton plant wreath. Do not accept a substitute. Cottolene is the original and only improvement upon lard as a shortening. It has no satisfactory substitute—except on paper.

Use one-third less. Cottolene, being richer than lard or cooking butter, one-third less is required. It is, therefore, economical.

COTTOLENE was granted a GRAND PRIZE (highest possible award) over all other cooking fats at the recent Louisiana Purchase Exposition, and food cooked with COTTOLENE another GRAND PRIZE.

"Home Helps" a book of 300 choice recipes, edited by Mrs. Rorer, is yours for a 2 cent stamp, if you address The N. K. Fairbank Company, Chicago.

A NEW FEATURE—The patent air-tight top on this pail is for the purpose of keeping COTTOLENE clean, fresh and wholesome; it also prevents it from absorbing all disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

THE AREA OF HONESTY.

William Allen White, in an article on "What's the Matter With America?" in this week's Collier's, contrasts his explanation of the most familiar puzzle of politics into a single sentence, so illuminating as to deserve a place among the classics. The puzzle is why honest men do dishonest things; why men who will not steal or be direct, do both indirectly. And the answer is:

"For the area of honesty in a man is only the small spot covered by his moral vision."

The more you think of that statement, the more things it explains. There is nothing so common in this world as common honesty, and apparently nothing so uncommon as uncommon honesty. And this is not merely because uncommon honesty deals with larger temptations. The man who would refuse a thousand or a million dollar bribe is as common as the man who would refuse a ten dollar one. Employees around mints and treasuries may be more carefully watched than employees around groceries, merely because the loss, if one of them were a thief, would be greater, but as a matter of fact, the man who can be trusted not to steal soap, in the grocery, could usually be trusted not to steal gold, in the mint. Men who will lay down their lives for their country are ridiculously common and every accident or emergency develops heroes on the spot, who will risk their lives, not for a friend, merely but for a chance stranger. All this is common honesty, common patriotism and heroism, and these are almost as common in the higher forms as in the lower.

An honest man becomes dishonest, not because the temptation is too strong for him, but because it takes a form outside the range of his clear moral vision. The man who knows it is wrong to steal a dollar knows it is wrong to steal a million, and he will do neither. But the same man will tip a conductor to take him to San Francisco without a ticket, thereby stealing two or three dollars from the railroad company. He will hire himself and team to the county to work the roads, and put in a bill for a full day's pay when he did only half a day's perfunctory work; thereby stealing a dollar or two from the taxes his neighbors pay. He will not sell his vote for two dollars or two thousand, but he will give it for a promise to appoint his friend deputy. He will vote for those who trade with him, and then expect them, in office, to discriminate the public business in his favor. He will throw in his soul—his personal self-respect and political independence—along with his trading stamps, to please a customer, and scarcely feel that he is giving away a valuable commodity. He will go to a convention and trade or sit in a public body and log-roll, with never a sense of wrong. All these dishonest things, honest men do. And even more plainly dishonest things, straight graft, taking commissions on public contracts, using public office to promote private trade; using information obtained as an official or attorney to guide private investments, and more like offenses, are committed by men who are beyond any possible suspicion of burglary or pocket picking. Men will give bribes who would not take bribes; and men will bribe good laws out of a crooked legislature who would not bribe, or even lobby bad laws from any legislature. All these things are just as dishonest as stealing. But it takes a broader moral perception to recognize them as such, and multitudes of men who are honest, even against tremendous temptation, within the narrow limit of their clear vision, are dishonest, against even the smallest temptation, outside of that limit. They simply do not see. And they can not be made to see, by mere logical demonstration. They can not refute the demonstration, but they are not controlled by it. What they need is education, which is a far slower process than demonstration. It needs to begin in youth; to train our people to be as sensitive to honor as to honesty; to guard sincerity as sacredly as veracity; to regard a public obligation as paramount to a private one; to repress graft as stealing and favoritism as bribery. There is conscience enough already to stop these things whenever their wrong is clearly perceived. Our problem is not what to do with dishonest men. There are not enough of them to count, and the jails are plenty big enough to hold them. The problem is with the dishonest things honestly done by honest men.

WHEN THIEVES FALL OUT.

Hoss McCarren, of Brooklyn, has openly repudiated Hearst. Hoss Murphy, of Tammany, more subtly, has merely told a little truth. Probably there was never a campaign in New York in which Tammany did not give or receive money, to make or prevent nominations. The only difference is that this time Murphy peached. He did it to beat his ally, Hearst, and it will help to do so. Hearst himself, of course had nothing to do with the self-education of bribes on the part of his housemen. He is no petty grafter, and is beyond the need of rakes off on their blackwashing fees. He might pay money bribes, but he would not accept or share them. The revelation is not against him personally, but against the character of the gang he has collected. A money crew, of all the disreputable, rejected and unattached, of all the doers, financial, moral, political and intellectual, of every variety of freak and visionary, together with some hundreds of thousands of honest victims of his bunco-steering arts,—these are not the organization to undertake to reform New York. Nobody pretends they are; nobody supposes the independence League has any such intention or function; nobody doubts that it is a mere extemporized appendage to Hearst's personal ambition. But it is a different thing to know this thing and to have it confessed. If Hearst has to repudiate his own league, as he has already repudiated everybody and everything else, he will stand out more than ever as the one-man party, stripped of even the transparent halo of the independence league. And he will share in the discredit cast on his league. It is no honest party. Hearst has one sort of dishonesty in starting it; his grafters have another sort, in blackwashing Murphy. The latter sort is easier to understand and the revelation of this gross dishonesty of the ball-and-chain grade, at one end of the league, will make more visible the more complex dishonesty at the other end. The thieves have fallen out, and honest men bid fair to get their dues.

DARING IS ROBBERY OF VALUABLE RIG

Stranger Drives Off With Buggy Standing Outside of Hotel.

A daring robbery entailing the loss of a valuable horse and buggy occurred last night on the rig of D. W. Virgo, 1500 A street was stolen by a stranger while the owner was inside a hotel for a few minutes. Mr. Virgo with a friend, R. P. Brumfield, drove up to the Cosmopolitan hotel last night at about 7 o'clock to transact business with a man inside. Before entering, he hitched the horse to post with a halter snunk. After remaining inside for perhaps ten minutes the two men came outside and found the horse and buggy gone. A man standing near the entrance of the hotel, who had volunteered the information that a man came up a few minutes before and, after looking over the horse and examining the buggy, unlatched the animal hurriedly and jumped in, driving off at a brisk rate. The informant thought nothing of the occurrence at the time, believing that the man was the owner and merely looked over the rig to see that everything was all right before returning home. He described him as a middle aged man of good appearance, well dressed. He seemed perfectly sober and cool in his movements, and did not look behind him when he started off.

EX-SENATOR BARD WRITES OF GILLETT

REPUBLICAN NOMINEE FOR GOVERNOR AS DESCRIBED BY ONE WHO KNOWS HIM AND HIS WORK—GILLETTE'S INDEPENDENCE AND HIS STRENGTH OF CHARACTER — CHARGE THAT HE IS A SOUTHERN PACIFIC MAN REFUTED.

BY THOMAS R. BARD.

In Los Angeles Times.

Senator Bullitt's recent tribute to the character of the Republican candidate for governor of California suggests to me the possibility of saying a word that may serve to relieve the anxiety of any conscientious Republican voter who may be alarmed by the campaign accusation that an candidate will not be an independent governor.

Mr. Gillett has won the confidence of the people wherever he has been called to represent them. He has held the honorable public stations from the district of his home county and congress, and has filled them to the entire satisfaction of his constituents and his political associates. We have not heard one word of accusation from his political opponents, that he has, in any degree, been unfaithful to the people or the state, in the discharge of any of the varied public duties which he has been called to perform.

My personal acquaintance with Mr. Gillett began when he first entered the house of representatives. Because of the favorable impression I had formed concerning his character and ability, derived from the reputation he bore among many of my friends who were his associates in legislative work, and anticipating, therefore, that he would early receive proper recognition, I watched his career with such interest. Among his colleagues in the house, he gained the reputation of being not only a very capable member, but also a very courageous and independent man. The interests of his district and state received his zealous and constant attention; but that was not, as is the case of some of our representatives, the limit of his ambition and usefulness. He was always alert and interested in the greater questions of national importance, and was unwilling to record his vote in such matters without due preparation. Such men resist the temptations of social functions, and the many attractions which the city of Washington constantly affords, and loyally appreciate their responsibilities, give more time and harder work to their public duties than they are accustomed to devote to their professions or private occupations, though the reward seems to be much more remote. Inadequate and uncertain that are the fees and earnings by which their abilities are recognized at their homes. It is such men as Mr. Gillett who, in the long run, by their diligence and independence, become the real leaders in congress, rather than the men who are gifted with genius or are backed up by the influence of railroad and other great private interests—and that fact ought to be a source of great gratification in every true American.

Mr. Gillett's work as a member of the committee on the judiciary has been remarkable for its dignity and importance. In that connection, I desire to refer to an incident which, in my judgment, alone proves that Mr. Gillett is not only capable, but is conscientious, courageous and independent. He was a member of the sub-committee appointed by the committee on the judiciary to investigate the impeachment charges preferred against Judge Charles Swayne of the District court for the Northern District of Florida. In the course of the investigation, he committed himself to a certain extent in favor of the impeachment of Judge Swayne. But, eventually, having been appointed on the special committee to prepare the articles of impeachment, and after a fuller examination, Mr. Gillett became convinced that he had been misled. He then joined the minority in their report that the evidence was insufficient to justify the impeachment.

Throughout the debate in the house on this matter, Mr. Gillett ably led the opposition to the majority report of the committee; and by his earnestness, firmness and courage in that trying position, won the solid and enduring esteem of his colleagues. His views were fully sustained by the order of the senate acquitting Judge Swayne from the charges in the articles of impeachment.

In the debate in the house, having been interrupted by the question whether he had not a month before agreed to the impeachment, he replied as follows: (I quote from the Congressional Record.) "If I made a mistake in the first instance, I now want to stand up and say, after the disclosure of all these facts which I have mentioned, that I did Judge Swayne an injustice, and if I have a chance, I am going to vote to undo the wrong I did him." (Applause.)

This action of Mr. Gillett illustrates more forcibly than any words of commendation I may attempt to express the strength of his character. It is impossible for such a man to be subservient to any interests that are antagonistic to the public welfare, while he may be charged with the duty of protecting it. Such a man will never be unfaithful to his own conscientious convictions or to the people by whom he is entrusted with public duties.

Knowing him as I do, I rely implicitly upon the statements made by Mr. Gillett on many occasions during the campaign, that he will recognize no man or corporation as his master; and I am confident that, when elected governor of the state he will give no undue preference to himself or in any way forfeit the esteem of those who by their association with him, are best qualified to judge of his character and worth, and who are giving him their unqualified endorsement.

At this juncture in the campaign no greater injury can be done to any innocent candidate than to accuse him of having received his nomination by the grace of the agents of the Southern Pacific railroad company. For it is evident that the people of the state are intensely hot upon breaking down the machine which has been so often used in election to public office the tool and agents of that great corporation through the manipulation of the nominating conventions of the two great political parties of this state.

The statement of Hon. George Knight will be received by many voters as good authority that Mr. Gillett secured his nomination in spite of the Southern Pacific influence. But even if it be true that Mr. Gillett did receive the support of railroad delegates in the Santa Cruz convention, we can well understand that they acquiesced in the demand by certain of the members of the convention that there should be selected for the highest political office of the state a man who was absolutely independent and who could not be assailed because of any suspicion that he had ever been, was then, or is likely to be, in any way subservient to the railroad interests.

The railroad politicians, however audacious they have become, are not so unwise as to demand and secure, if they could, the nomination of a whole ticket of men who are known, or suspected, to be the compliant tools of the great corporation. The Southern Pacific railroad is its policies for the main purpose of securing nominations, by both great political parties in this state, to those offices only which have to deal directly with questions affecting an interest. If you would know how far it has accomplished its purposes in this campaign scrutinize particularly the character of the nominees for judicial offices, for members of the state board of equalization and for railroad commissioners. To elect the men whom it has imposed upon either party as candidates for such places, it must necessarily permit the nomination of such men as Mr. Gillett, or else its plans would be easily defeated.

MEXICO ACCEPTS NEW RATE LAW

Swallows Wholesale All Joint Tariffs To Avoid Delay In Selling Tickets.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 18.—In order that there may be no delay in the selling of through tickets from points in the United States to points in Mexico, the Mexican Central railway and every railroad in Mexico has sent to the interstate commerce commission in the United States a concurrence in the new rate law. They assent to all joint passenger tariffs and all supplements and amendments thereto which hereafter may be issued by any common carrier.

Without a statement of this kind on file at Washington, it might be regarded as a violation of the new law for any northern line to sell any through ticket to any point in Mexico.

MURDERER'S ACCOMPLICE MRS. AURELIA SCHECK WILL ESCAPE LIGHTLY.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Aurelia Schuck, who confessed to complicity in the brutal murder of her husband, Joel Schuck, which resulted in the conviction and sentencing for life imprisonment of her lover, Ernest Stackpole, will escape with a trial for perjury. The district attorney today decided to place her on trial for this offense October 24th. She has been in jail four months. Her defense will be a promise of immunity from the prosecution for turning state's evidence.

The Finest Embroidery Sale Ever Held in Fresno Will Take Place Tomorrow!

Values up to $3.50 for 85c a yard!

When we say this, you know that it does mean something extraordinary. We have always been leaders in embroidery sales and heretofore have been very successful. But this sale far eclipses anything ever seen or heard of in Fresno. It's really marvelous to think that such beautiful sheer, fine embroideries can be bought at this price.

We can't begin to describe on paper the beauty of these elegant embroideries. We know they're the handsomest ever shown here and surpass any embroidery that is kept in stock or ever sold at any sale.

The gauzy, chiffon daintiness of these fine Swiss and Batiste embroideries in their lovely open work patterns and raised designs instantly appeals to your good judgment of beauty and good values. They're simply exquisite embroideries and can never be duplicated again at the price.

Judging by the crowds seen round the windows, we know that every woman in town will be here.

Don't forget the price, 85c a yard. Sale begins promptly at 9 o'clock.

Fair Friday.
High barometric pressure occupies the lower Lake region and the north Atlantic states, and the trough of low pressure, which was central yesterday east of the Rocky mountains, has moved eastward and now overlies the Mississippi valley, causing light rains over North Dakota, Nebraska, northern Texas, the Mississippi valley and lake region, the eastern Gulf coast, Georgia, Tennessee and the middle Atlantic coast, being heaviest at Atlanta, with 1.62 inches. An area of high pressure extends from the north Pacific coast to the middle Rocky mountains, accompanied by fair, cool weather, with severe frosts over the intermountain region.
The eastward movement of a disturbance over western Canada caused light rains along the coast of Oregon and Washington, and showers over western Montana. The conditions are favorable for continued fair weather at Fresno and vicinity Friday.

One of the first Servian funeral ser-yesterday afternoon when the remains of little Bozo Kurtovich were laid to rest. Father Simonovich, a Greek priest specially engaged for the occasion, arrived from Jackson and conducted the funeral. The ceremonies were impressive. In the incense laden air, the officiating clergyman chanted the prayers and psalms for the dead, receiving responses from the mourners at intervals, and concluded by reading passages of the scriptures. A number of candles were burning, and in the hands of the priest as he chanted his prayers, swung an incense burner over the little casket of the dead boy. The interment was in Mountain View.

BIG MEETING AT LATON

Needham, Chandler, Smith the Speakers.

Large and Attentive Audience Listens to Arguments of Republican Candidates.

Congressman J. C. Needham, Assemblyman W. F. Chandler, Lewis H.
Smith and the majority of the Republican county candidates held a raucous campaign meeting at Laton last night.
Old Fellows' hall was filled to overflowing with an attentive and appreciative crowd which listened to the arguments of the speakers with attention.
Assemblyman W. F. Chandler was the first speaker of the meeting. He spoke of the conditions now prevailing in the state and county and exhorted his listeners to support men who stand for good government. He then spoke of the oil business and of various attacks that have been made upon him in connection with it. He explained the connection of the four large oil companies with the oil market and showed how prices had been kept down by competition between these companies rather than by combination. Companies with which he was personally connected had stopped drilling and shut down wells and he had used his own influence in the Associated Oil company against the policy of competing for business which could only be had by ruinously low rates. He also explained the history of a bill requiring railroads to furnish oil cars which had been introduced in the legislature and was not passed. This bill came before a committee of which Mr. Chandler was a member and he suggested an amendment to it designed to make it more fair to all parties concerned. The bill was reported out of committee and received the usual two readings, but was never voted upon and for the last time than there had been for many years. "It is important for the people to elect congressmen who will support President Roosevelt," said Needham.

After Mr. Needham had finished, the county candidates present each spoke briefly, urging their claims to election to the offices sought.

Tonight at Selma, Chester H. Rowell will speak with Needham, and tomorrow night M. B. Harris and Chandler will speak with Needham at Fowler. The county candidates are invited to be present at these meetings.

Will Be Heard By Judge Austin
November 16th.

Very Little Doing These Days
In the Upper Courts of the County.

The suit to condemn the site of the proposed municipal sewer farm has at last, after several months of delay, been set for trial. The action will take place before Judge Austin in department 2, on November 16th, beginning at 10 o'clock.

The case, which is entitled City of Fresno vs. H. E. Burleigh et al., was set on suggestion of Attorney O. L.
Everts, acting for City Attorney Ex-ing. The importance of having this matter heard as soon as possible is not to be taken for granted. The suit will be begun by Contractor McElroy until title to the farm is settled.

Archibald Ferguson petitioned for letters of administration upon the estate of James Ferguson, who died on the 15th of this month. Hearing was set for October 29th.

The property consists of 320 acres of land, worth $1200; horses, $370; cattle, $80; hay, $42; total, $1672. The land yields a rental of $50 a year. The heirs are the two small sons of the deceased, aged 11 and 9 years respectively, who are living with Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Sharp.

The Southern Pacific company has demanded to the suit of Emma Cole Heiskell for damages. Mrs. Heiskell, who lived near Pollock, was injured last year while riding on the Pollock branch of the road.

Louis and Augustus Manuel have filed their final account of the estate of their mother, Mrs. Laura C. Calhoun, and ask for its distribution. The deceased left a life interest in the property to her husband, Henry Calhoun, upon whose death it is to be divided in equal shares between her three children and one grandchild. Hearing is set for November 5th.

An amended copy of the articles of incorporation of the Associated Oil company were filed.

Nomination of Judge Cook.

Certificate of nomination of Carroll Cook, Superior Judge in San Francisco and nominee of the Republican party for judge of the Appellate court in the Third district, was filed with the county clerk. The certificate comes from the county clerk of San Francisco, and is considered necessary because of some uncertainty as to the validity of the law regarding district nominations.

District Attorney Jones filed an information against S. J. Hunter, Hun-der is the man who on the 8th of this month struck H. L. Richard with a scale weight. He is charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intention to commit murder.

FIGHT FOR CONVENTION

Dr. Kjaerbye Tells About Danish Gathering.

California Made Good Showing
Before Middle West
Farmers.

Dr. C. P. Kjaerbye is home from attending the quadrennial convention of the Danish Brotherhood at Council Bluffs. He arrived in Fresno last evening after an absence in the East of several weeks. The convention closed about ten days ago, but he spent some time later visiting relatives in Salt Lake city.

Dr. Kjaerbye expressed himself as being greatly delighted with the prospect of bringing the next convention of the Brotherhood to Fresno. This will be held in this city in October, 1910.

"We had a great field. All the twelve delegates from California stood by me like one man to secure the convention, and of course we were helped by the two men from Oregon and the eight from Washington. When I first began talking about Fresno at the convention I was laughed at. They said that they had always had their gatherings in the Middle West, and that it was too expensive to go to California. You know that most of the membership consists of farmers and they are very conservative when it comes to spending money.

"We made a good showing, however.
We had a lot of California wine and fruit, and plenty of Fresno raisins and fruit, which attracted a great deal of attention. Then, too, I had carried on an extensive correspondence about the matter before the convention. Fresno was certainly not a lot of advertising and we got everybody talking about Central California.

"Danish was the other city after the convention. When it came to a vote, Danish had 90 votes to Fresno's 133. That was easy.

"Four years from now we will have an attendance of the convention of between 400 and 500 and visitors to bring the number up to at least 1000.
The greatest membership in the order is located in the states of Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Nebraska, all substantial people, who would make fine settlers here. I know at this time of eighteen families who are coming out here within a month to look around and probably to settle."

SOCIETY

The Porlar Lecture club's musical yesterday brought out a representative gathering of the club's members. Mrs. H. W. Neely has charge of the musical section this year and proved herself a capable and energetic chairman by her excellent management of the musical yesterday afternoon. This department has furnished several happy afternoons for the club and none more enjoyed than yesterday when the chief attraction was the appearance of Signor Warrell and his pupils, Miss Fay Carranza, Miss Carranza sang unusually well yesterday afternoon. She was quite at ease and charmed her audience by her simple earnestness of manner and sweet singing. She has a childlike quality of voice that is very fascinating and promises to develop into a brilliancy that is rarely heard and only in a true lyric soprano.

The program opened yesterday afternoon with a piano number for four hands, Moszkowski's "Italy" played delightfully by Mrs. L. L. Cary and Miss Martha Sprangle. It was an appropriate and splendidly executed opening to the music of the day. Signor Warrell's first number was Berlioz's majestic and inspiring "Venezia" which with the full rich quality of tone which best expresses this beautiful number and which the singer was able to give. Rounds of appreciative applause called forth an encore, and then came a piano number by Miss Jennie Knowles, "Murmuring Zephyrs," by J. S. Bach. It is a dainty, rippling number full of beauty of rhythm and Miss Knowles received generous applause for her interpretation of it. "If Thou Didst Love Me" by Denza was Miss Carranza's opening number and at the close the audience made an insistent call for a second. She sang for an encore "Dying Flower" by Denza, a most exquisite melody full of pathos and sentiment and delightfully sung.

Especially pleasing of the instrumental numbers was the "Tarentelle" by S. R. Whitney played by Mrs. Edward Waterman. Mrs. Waterman has demonstrated her ability as a musician of merit before, but the clearness of her touch and brilliancy of execution were never more clearly shown than in her playing yesterday.

Signor Warrell sang for his second program number the familiar "Call Me Back" by Denza, which pleased the audience immensely, and he was vigorously recalled, singing for an encore "Tito Maltier's" "For the Sake of the Past." Closing the program Miss Carranza and Signor Warrell sang "Piano" (a "Love," a brilliant, beautiful number in which their voices were in perfect accord and which took the fancy of the audience who gave them the cordial applause they deserved. Mrs. J. W. Gearhart accompanied most acceptably.

Next week Mrs. Corinne Madden will be with the club to give the first talk of her course on the modern drama. "Macbeth's" "Death of Tintagiles" will be the subject of her discourse for next Thursday.

Mrs. and Mrs. DeWitt Gray have had as their guests the latter's cousin, Mr. Leonard Everts, and his wife. Mrs. Everts has returned to San Francisco but Mrs. Everts will remain the rest of the week.

Mrs. Edwin Rowe came up from Los Angeles yesterday for a brief visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Risley. She is en route to Spokane, where they are to make their home. Mr. Rowe coming from the South to join her here in about a week, when they will go north together.

The Friday Study club will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Harvey Burns on the corner of L and Neilson avenue.

Mrs. Hector Burruss and family returned this week from a summer outing on Hollins bay.

Nathaniel V. Holliday and Miss Maud Landrum were married Wednesday night at their cozy new home at No. 1024 Thiers street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Duncan Wallace in the presence of a number of friends. Mr. Holliday is bookkeeper for a local parking house and is a well-known young man. The bride is a charming young lady who has many friends.

The court is expecting a visit next month from Mr. Irwin, deputy supreme chief ranger, from Southern California. On the second meeting night in November a social affair is being planned for the court and the companion circle.

Royal Court.
Fresno assembly, Royal Court, held a lively meeting last night in Kohler hall. The usual routine business matters occupied the attention of the members during the early evening, after which the ladies of the lodge joined the members of the circle.

The next social affair which the lodge will give is a social dance in Kohler hall next Thursday night, which promises to be an affair of unusual pleasure both to the members and their friends.

Foresters of America.
The Foresters are planning for a most elaborate Thanksgiving celebration, arrangements for which are progressing rapidly, and the committee are giving reports of the prospects for the affair. The business of the meeting last night was short, the chief interest of the meeting centering in the approaching festivities.

Judge G. W. Smith officiated at a quiet wedding yesterday which united Miss Hazel Everts and Daniel Charles House. Both young people are well known in this city. The bride is especially well known and esteemed. After a week's honeymoon they will reside at 611 N street.

Invitations are out for a merry halcyon celebration which Mrs. Frank Rehorn will give to a party of young people with Miss Leonard Schaefer as guest of honor. The cards of invitation are in the shape of yellow pumpkins and are most interesting looking.

The Friday Afternoon Card club will be revived this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Emory Donahue on Van Ness avenue. The ladies are still devoted to the social game and are not to give it up as was rumored at one time for the more strenuous bridge. The members are all at home now and ready to begin the pleasant weekly sessions which were so much enjoyed in previous seasons.

The West Park Thursday club met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. W. J. McNeil for a most interesting study session. It was Magazine day, the magazines of the month forming the outline of the afternoon's work. A synopsis of current topics in the magazines was given by different members, among those contributing to the program being Mrs. C. F. Hart, Mrs. H. E. Burleigh, Mrs. Al McNeil. It was an enthusiastic and large meeting, the members enjoying a social hour at the close of the afternoon and refreshments. Mrs. Al McNeil will be the club's hostess next week at her home, corner of Cornelia and North avenues.

An interesting wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Rodman, on Harvey avenue, when their daughter, Miss Ida May Rodman, became the bride of D. T. Winne, the well known lawyer of this city. The bride has lived here with her parents for a number of years and was a student at Berkeley for several years. The home was simply and attractively decorated for the occasion in blossoms of pink and white with delicate greenery. Rev. Duncan Wallace performed the ceremony at 8 o'clock in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride, the bride's relatives all living in the East. Dr. and Mrs. Charles of Hartford, an uncle and aunt of the bride, and William Baker, also of Hartford, were the only out-of-town guests at the wedding. The bride was attired in a dainty wedding gown of sheerest white. There were no attendants. Mrs. Cinnbeck played the wedding music. Mr. and Mrs. Winne left on the Owl for Southern California, where a ten days' honeymoon will be spent, after which they will make their home at No. 114 Van Ness avenue, where the groom owns a pretty cottage, which is ready for occupancy.

The ladies of "We and Our Neighbors" circle of the First Presbyterian church, invite donations of suitable books new or second hand as a nucleus for a library to be used by the circle in connection with the Knox mission Sunday school of the Presbyterian church. This mission has been recently established in the south part of town on the corner of L and Los Angeles streets and is a growing work and a credit to the women who started it. Books for the library may be left at South, Fontenot & Trautwein's book store, on Mariposa street. The circle will be very grateful for all such gifts and all donors who participate in this noble endeavor will be assured that their donations will be much appreciated.

The regular monthly meeting of the Merry Progressives and club was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Long on Calaveras avenue. A jolly good time was had, all the club members and a few invited guests being present. The double parlor in which was arranged the five tables for the players, were prettily decorated with smilax and bowls of cut flowers. The first prize for ladies, a beautiful hand-painted plate, was won by Mrs. Joe Pine, while the gentlemen's first prize was won by Joe Pine and the consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Strahan and John Howard. Delicious refreshments were served after the game at a long table in the dining room at which were seated twenty-five guests. Georgia Minstrels. Music and song the coming of Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels will be hailed with delight. This sterling organization has weathered the theatrical seas for twenty-eight years, never changing management, and not once departing from its established rule of presenting only what is great, good and wholesome in the minstrel world. Other minstrel companies have come and gone, but Richards & Pringle's go on forever. The secret of its success has been the fact that the management has always firmly believed that the paying public craved a genuine colored minstrel performance when presented on the lines that made minstrelsy so popular years ago; that belief has been proven to be the correct one. Sweet southern melodies, beautiful and entrancing music by skilled musicians, dances and other negro and white acts and the fact that the company has made the whole world laugh, is still at the head of the list of artists, and will bring with him this season a big budget of good things that he has collected during the past summer. The company travels in its own Pullman Palace cars and number and free concert are a feature of the season and will be given as usual. The date of their appearance is next Sunday night at the Barton. The sale of seats is now open. Prices 25, 50 and 75 cents.

ACCUSED OF PRACTICING WITHOUT LICENSE

Dr. Prather Swears Out Warrant for Dentists' Apprentice.

A warrant was sworn out yesterday afternoon for the arrest of C. E. Phillips, under a charge of practicing dentistry without a license. Dr. J. L. Prather, president of the local dental society, swore out the warrant before Judge Briggs. Dr. Prather says he had suspected for some time that the young man was doing dental work and knew that he had no license, as his name did not appear among the registered dentists of Fresno county. He stated that he had been told lately that Phillips was doing work that necessitated a license, so he thought his duty to look into the matter.

Dr. Prather, by whom Phillips is employed, declares that the charge is entirely without foundation. He says that Phillips was engaged by him merely to do mechanical work in the laboratory, and this kind of work does not require a certificate from the state board of examiners, as nearly every dental establishment has such a man employed. He attributed the cause of the trouble to professional jealousy.

When Phillips was asked about the matter he made practically the same statement, saying that he was only employed in the laboratory and not as a professional dentist, so that no license was necessary. Up till a late hour last night, Phillips had not been served with the warrant, which would indicate that the authorities do not deem the charge very serious.

Before entering the office of Dr. Free, who has his office in the Broadway block, Phillips was with Dr. Cory for several years, as an apprentice.

Not a drop of Alcohol

Doctors prescribe very little, if any, alcohol these days. They prefer strong tonics and alteratives. This is all in keeping with modern medical science. It explains why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is now made entirely free from alcohol. Ask your doctor. We have no secret! We publish J. C. Ayer & Co., the famous Fall River Preparation. Lowell, Mass.

A Most Worthy Article.
When an article has been on the market for years and gains friends every year it is safe to call this medicine a worthy one. Such is Ballard's Kidney and Bladder Pills. It positively cures coughs and all pulmonary diseases. One of the best known medicines in America, Ala., says:
"For five years my family has not been troubled with the winter cough. We owe this to Ballard's Kidney and Bladder Pills. I know it has saved my children from many sick spells." Sold by Geo. H. Monroe.

ANNAM KING A CANNIBAL

Awful Atrocities By An Insane Monarch.

Wife's Body Cooked and Eaten—French Government Arrested the Monster.

MARSEILLES, France, Oct. 17.—The nation's attention was attracted here today from Indo-China brought another and more revolting story of the doings of King Thut-Thut of Annam, showing that he went to the extent of cannibalism.
After killing one of his wives he caused the body to be cooked and served for dinner to his courtiers. Some of the king's wives were found and buried with burning oil and subjected to other cruelly while unkind women were thrown into cages with the beasts where they were devoured before the eyes of the king. Finally, the French authorities stepped in and made the prisoner of Thut-Thut, who has been adjudged insane by Dr. Dumas of the French colonial staff.
"The royal guard" has been disbanded, the palace has been placed under the protection of 150 native soldiers and the terror-stricken inmates of the palace have been rescued from further suffering. The majority of the king's wives were women who bore the marks of revolting tortures, some of them were terribly mutilated their faces being slashed and tongues cut out while others had been suspended by pinnae attached to the fleshy parts of their legs to increase their agonies.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—The minister of the colonies this afternoon admitted that Thut-Thut had been imprisoned in the palace.

LAST STEP TAKEN BY SUPREME COURT AS TO SENATOR BURTON

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The mandate of the Supreme court of the United States in the case of former United States Senator Burton of Kansas, under conviction and sentence for the violation of his oath as a senator, was issued today by the clerk of the Supreme court. The document is directed to the United States circuit court for the eastern district of Missouri and merely notifies that judgment by the Supreme court. This is the usual method of procedure in such cases and is a notice to the trial court that it is at liberty to execute its sentence.

BAY CITY TEACHERS REFUSE TO SUBMIT TO REDUCTION OF SALARY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 17.—The school teachers of San Francisco met today at Plymouth church next Saturday to discuss possible ways and means of making a further effort to secure the payment of their salaries in full.
They object to the recently enacted rule of the board of education that vacation salaries be dispensed with, and while they admit that $350,000 has to be saved in some manner from the annual expenditures, they refuse to endure any financial loss in connection with their pay. The session will not be in the nature of a mass meeting.

ALLEGED VICTIM OF JOINT SUICIDE PACT ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

SMITHVILLE, Mo., Oct. 17.—Jesse L. Webb, a young St. Joseph merchant, was today arrested here charged with killing his 15-year old bride of a week at this place on October 11th. At the time of the shooting, Webb asserted that he and his wife had entered into a suicide pact because he was incurably ill with tuberculosis and that she shot him and then killed herself. Webb was believed to have been mortally wounded, but now it is said he will recover. The wife was shot four times, and the authorities doubt that she was able to shoot herself so many times.

How to Cure a Cold.

The question of how to cure a cold without unnecessary loss of time is one in which we are all more or less interested, for the quicker a cold is cured, the less the danger of pneumonia, influenza, and other serious diseases. Mr. B. W. L. Hall, of Waverly, Va., has used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for years and says: "I firmly believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be absolutely the best preparation on the market for colds. I have recommended it to my friends and they all agree with me. For sale by all druggists."

FRANCE NOT WILLING TO ALLOW HIERARCHY TO MAKE HER LAWS.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—The Catholic organs here have been strongly intimating that the pope is not satisfied with the degree of the council of state announced by the government. All are recognizing as a cultural association, capable of taking over church property and associations which is not in communion with the regular hierarchy and the hierarchy at Rome. The government, however, shows no disposition to accept a compromise which would make Rome, and not France, the arbiter of the regularity of associations under the law.

CROOKS ARE ARRESTED

Men Who Got Away With $5,000 are Brought Here.

Both Leave Under Strong Guard for Hanford After Inspection By Police

The two confidence men who flim-flammed Mike Deutra out of $5,000 by a smooth trick on Wednesday arrived here yesterday in charge of several officers from Hanford, coming from Madera, and stopping in this city for identification by the police and proprietor of the Crescent livery stable. The party arrived in an automobile at about a half past five, and were met by their long journey since early this morning. The appearance of the prisoners, however, was not very impressive. The two men were dressed in the best of the latest fashions, and both were elderly, one of them being at least 70 years of age, while the other appeared to be between 50 and 60 years old. According to the descriptions given out it was thought that the men would turn out to be a young and an elderly man, but the elder of the two, although otherwise answering the description fully, proved to be the elder by many years. Both men were well dressed and looked like prosperous real estate men as they pretended to be.

When they entered town and drove up to the police headquarters, they glanced curiously around, but betrayed no emotion. As they stepped from the car under the careful watching of the escort of officers, the two appeared stiff and wary, the younger man being especially lame and worn out. They were escorted to the police office where a large crowd had gathered and crowded to the front to look curiously at the captives. As soon as they sat down, the old man who wore glasses, put on another pair, and with the two glasses read eagerly a newspaper which someone handed to him. Something in the account seemed to interest him deeply and he turned to point out eagerly to his companion some statement made. As they sat there, most of the officers on the force, with the deputies of the sheriff came in and took a good glance at their faces. Although of venerable appearance and of fragile physique, the elder of the men has a hard looking face. His jaw had evidently been badly broken some years ago, and even a heavy white beard could not hide a disfiguring twist in the lower bone. When he spoke or moved his mouth, the jaw protruded in a fearful manner, lending a sinister appearance to his countenance. Someone asked him how it was done, and he seemed on the point of giving an explanation, but passed it off by answering another question put to him by one of the officers. His companion is a large, fleshy man with a red face, scarred with a heavy scar on one cheek. The wound appeared to have been done with a dull edged instrument. On the other cheek was another scar near the eye. The man looked like a hard drinker.

A remarkable feature of the affair is the fact that one of the men was supposed to be young, a mere youth in fact. In giving this description, the identification mark of the mutilated jaw was mentioned and in every other detail the old man answered to the description of the so-called young man. When the officers started out in hot pursuit they looked for a clean shaven young fellow, and were puzzled to find that he had added some fifty years to his age, besides having white hair and growing a beard, in the interim. Some of the officers are inclined to believe that another member of the gang of crooks resembled the old man, while others offered the vague suggestion that he was mimicked at the time of the robbery, and had the old Portuguese rascal done and unable to detect anything wrong. But in view of the apparent age of the fellow the latter explanation is obviously erroneous.

The men were arrested by Constable Goodrich as they were walking along the railroad track. The officer was riding in the train to Madera and saw the pair going along the track. They had grips with them and he at once recognized them as the wanted men. Goodrich went on to Madera about seven miles distant, and notified Deputy Sheriff Henley, who went back with him to meet the two. One of them made an attempt to pull his gun, but the officers got there first, and had the drop on them. The man with the gun gave his name as W. H. Williams, while the other, who is the old man, said he was J. C. Harris. The officers felt certain, however, that the names are fictitious. They took them back to Madera in a rig and notified the Fresno police. Besides the stolen money, there was about $1500 in coins and bills belonging to the crooks, which probably represented the proceeds of some other piece of villainy, as they could give no good account of it. When interrogated, Williams stated that he came from Madera, where he was well known; he also said that he was a traveling man, but dealt in real estate. Harris was quite communicative and said a lot without telling much. He said he dealt in real estate and would clear himself when the time came. Neither would make any statement concerning the money found in their possession, saying that they did not want to incriminate themselves.

With the men there came as escorts Constable Henrich, Deputy Sheriff Henrich, Constable Goodrich and Jailer Morse all of Hanford. In discussing the matter Deputy Sheriff Buckner took occasion to thank the police of Fresno for their co-operation in the pursuit, and remarked that it was largely due to their efforts that the fellows had been driven into their hands. He went on to state that the pair answered to the description given, and there could be no doubt of their identity.

After remaining in Fresno for about one hour and coming in for the close scrutiny of the police officers here, the two men were placed on an automobile, handcuffed by the wrists and shackled with ankle-irons, and departed with the officers to Hanford. A second auto followed with other officers. A large crowd was present when the party moved off, and the dejected pair of old, broken men left with the almost certainty of a long term in prison before them amid a luncheon of curious eyes.

A later reporter stated that the hunched old man was almost prostrated over his loss and took to his bed where a doctor was summoned.

Later details give a clearer account of how the loss came. Williams, a thirty-three year old fellow who had enough industry and horse sense to acquire a respectable little amount in the bank and a valuable ranch. The manner in which he was tricked out of his money was cruel in its simplicity.

For some time past the rancher has been desirous of selling his place. He offered it quietly for sale to more than one real estate man, and it was known that the ranch was on the market. On one of his trips to Hanford he met an engaging stranger who told him that he was on the look out for a ranch for a client of his. Could Mr. Deutra tell him where a nice, snug little place could be got for, say, $3,000? This sum was about $1000 more than the old fellow ever expected to realize upon his ranch, but he determined to do all possible in pulling off a deal with the stranger. The man listened gravely to the glowing account of the property and offered that it seemed really a good bargain at $3,000. The old rancher was headstrong with delight in his shrewd bargain, and invited the man to go out and look over the place. To this the beguiling agent replied that he had knocked about the world long enough to "size up" a man on sight and knew when he was getting the truth. No, he had implicit confidence in Mr. Deutra, and would get the money all ready for him in a sack. An appointment was made and it was agreed, merely as a matter of form, of course, to show good faith on both sides, that the vendor of the property should come up with an equivalent sum. Then they would deposit the two bags of money in a bank.

Shortly after noon, Deutra appeared at the bank with a check for $3000 and a sack. He wanted all of the money in cash or bills. The cashier demurred, advising him to take a certified check when he learned that the money was needed for some purpose of good faith, and told the rancher to call again. In the meantime he telephoned to the wife of his client, but the woman said that her husband knew his own business. When Deutra called later, the money was all ready for him and he left to meet his new friend. It was then agreed that they should go over together and see the place before settling the deal. The stranger had a heavy sack by his side. As the two drove off to the ranch they met another man on the road. He appeared to be a small, youngish man, and was engaged to drive the rig. The first stranger saying that he knew him. The last comer was shabbily dressed and said little or nothing. The two men soon began to dispute some point and asked the rancher to decide. He said something that seemed to displease both, and they quarreled. After a short wordy war, the first stranger said he did not have to do business with such a man, and told him that he could take himself and his money off for all he cared. In a rage he threw what appeared to be

LOWER COURT DAILY GRIND

Joe Marion Begs On Street to See What It Feels Like

Explanation to Court Is Deemed Worse Than Offense, and He Gets One Month

Among the sprinkling of eccentrics who turned up at Judge Briggs' court yesterday to get disciplined were Joe Marion, Emil Williams, August Nelson, William Kelly and Tom Brown. Marion is the fellow who was persistently begging on the streets when arrested by Officer Minkler on Wednesday night. He had a longwinded story of how to tell each party and only needed "two bits" to save him from starvation. To the judge yesterday Mr. Marion stated that he had a room rented at a lodging house and, really did not need any food or money, but simply begged a little money to help him to thirty days' travel, despite the entreaties of Marion that he wanted to go to work at the Copper King mine at once.

Emil Williams is a colored man who does not work more than possible and keeps shabby company. He was formerly connected with the defunct Sunflower club, being a charter member of the place. In court yesterday Attorney Long promised to give the man work on his ranch if he were released on a suspended sentence. The judge bawled him out money days but will hold him in commitment in order that he might have a chance to go to work for Mr. Fouts.

August Nelson waved feigning when arraigned yesterday on a charge of drunkenness. With a wide grin on his face he explained to the court that it only happened once a year. He promised fervently that he would not be heard of again if he got a chance. He was released with a caution.

William Kelly and Tom Brown, new to arrived hoboes, were floated out of town.

Tom Brown was released on suspended sentence for being drunk and disorderly. Officer Stevens found him on Ventura avenue raising a disturbance.

Hobos Ed Thompson claimed that he had work to go to at a ranch outside of the city limits. He pleaded earnestly to have the chance and got it.

M. Dutra, arrested for disturbing the peace while drunk, will appear in court this morning. Among others who will keep him company are Owen Owens and J. Smith, vagrants, a John Doe drunk picked up in Chinatown, and John Rush, who violated the city ordinance by riding his wheel on the sidewalk.

HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL TEAM PRACTICING HARD

Games Are Already Scheduled and Good Results Are Looked For.

The high school football team is practicing strenuously for the approaching season and is confident of having a winning team in the field. When practice was first called there was little interest shown on account of the general unsettled condition of the sport, but since it has been gradually decided that the old game under 1906 rules will be played, the boys are becoming more enthusiastic over the matter. The time for games has tended to quicken the spirit of the athletes.

A sufficient number are trying out to make up two teams and a regular contest is held between the first and second, or "B" and "C" teams, every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon. A splendid team was picked last year, and from the large amount of good material the prospects for an equally good team this year are very bright. Most of last year's men still being in school. Captain Byrd, who has been sick, is now able to practice and the team will be worked hard from now on, and the exact members of the team will be decided on in a couple of weeks, so every one is doing his best to make a good showing. Those who are trying out at present are: Ends, Charles Morton, Hershey Leonard, Perry Pierson and Sam Arkadian; tackles, Will Sutherland, Floyd Lanning and Chester Warlow; guards, John Kabanian, Frank Short and Nicholas Millash; center, Emory Stone; quarters, Waverly Waggoner and Robert Ballagh; backs, Elmer Hansen, Ned McNelly, Robert Collins and Walter Reed.

Captain Byrd is arranging for games with many schools as he can get and has a good many slated at present. They are: Selma at Fresno, Nov. 3rd; Fresno at Porterville, No. 10th; Tulare at Fresno, Dec. 8th. Also Visalia will play here sometime in December, and if a return game will be promised. Oakland will probably be here about Christmas time and Fresno will go to Oakland on New Year's. At present, however, no positive arrangements can be made.

UNION CLERKS HOLD BIG INITIATION AND SOCIAL

In Presence of 150 Members, They Initiate a Score of New Members.

One score more members entered the Retail Clerks' union last night with roasting ceremonies, while the Ushiva degree was conferred upon as many more. This gave ample excuse for the holding of an elaborate social and banquet which followed, and the night's entertainment was perhaps the best yet held by the union since their organization in this city.

The newly entered members were: C. J. Vincent, C. Gartricht, W. W. Hancy, Bert Williams, H. R. Ewing, C. Haycraft, Ed McCall, H. R. Jackson, G. C. Barber, W. G. Botham, R. P. Downing, R. M. Slover, C. O. S. Sauer, J. R. Rodding, M. Unberger, A. C. Porter, R. O. Brooks, Lee Howard, J. C. Jordan, C. A. Pippy, H. A. Chapman.

The program of the social took in the following features of interest: Harry Komer, piano solo; Marshall Mosher, song; quartet solos; songs by Carl Roth, C. H. Roberts, H. H. Walters, Harry Joseph, F. Dunleavy, A. N. Rosenberg, Roy Spang and others. Besides these were a number of recitations, and a character dance and sketch by Harry Joseph in appropriate costume.

A delicious table d'hôte was followed by cigars and lighter refreshments, and the happy gathering lingered in merry making until a late hour. More than 150 were present.

The clerks are going to spend their next regular meeting night at Hanford to attend the conferencing of the Ushiva degree upon a number of candidates there. The party will leave by a train in the early part of the night and return on the last train. A high old time is anticipated.

death claim of A. G. Geisler, a departed member of the branch. The sum was $100 and came in the form of a death benefit. Another claim was allowed in the case of Harry Murphy in the sum of $50. Murphy died about weeks ago. These death benefits represent a form of insurance to which every member of the union is entitled by remaining in good standing. The amount varies according to the conditions of the deceased, the sum being greater where a widow or children are left. Besides the death benefits, a weekly sum is allowed to sick members or those who happen to be out of employment for no cause of their own.

Today we begin a campaign for a greater Friday business. It has been considered one of the dull days in business life, and an unlucky day for many. Why there should be any feeling that Friday is an unlucky day is past belief. George Washington was born on Friday; Napoleon Bonaparte was born on Friday; Shakespeare was born on Friday; America was discovered on Friday; the Mayflower Pilgrims landed on Friday; in Scotland, Friday is the favorite day for weddings; the battle of Bunker Hill was fought on Friday; the battle of New Orleans was fought on Friday; the Declaration of Independence was signed on Friday; so why should Friday be considered unlucky? We will make Friday one of the banner sales days of the week, the luckiest of all purchasing days—the day of bigger bargains, the day for closing out all short lines, all odd lots, all remnants, the day it will pay to wait for to do your heavy trading.
